

FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

Release Date | May 2016

The purpose of this Financial Services Guide (FSG) is to help you make an informed decision about the services we offer and whether they are suited appropriately to meet your needs. This FSG provides you with important information on how to engage with one of our advisers.

This FSG should be read in conjunction with the Adviser Profile and covers the following:

- Information about Alliance Wealth as a licensee
- Details on how you may instruct your adviser
- Who will be responsible for providing the financial services
- Details of the financial services and/or products Alliance Wealth can provide
- The documents you may receive
- Remuneration received by your adviser
- Other forms of remuneration or benefits
- Privacy (i.e. collection and handling of your personal information)
- The complaints procedure
- Compensation arrangements in place

Throughout this FSG, Alliance Wealth is referred to as “we”, “us”, “our” or any variations. The term “adviser” refers to Alliance Wealth’s authorised representatives.

Alliance Wealth Pty Ltd (ABN 93 161 647 007), is an Australian Financial Services Licensee (AFSL No.449221).

Distribution of the Financial Services Guide (version 1.4) by the providing entity has been authorised by Alliance Wealth.
Authorisation date: 31 March 2016.

WELCOME

We know how important financial advice is in providing you with peace of mind and want to thank you for considering an engagement with one of our advisers to assist you in identifying and achieving your needs and objectives.

As part of our commitment to quality of service, we have prepared this guide to provide an overview of our services and value proposition. Please take the time to review this document before engaging our services.

Who We Are and What We Stand For

As an Australian Financial Services (AFS) Licence holder, Alliance Wealth is a wholly owned subsidiary of Centrepoin Alliance Limited (Centrepoin Alliance), an ASX listed company.

Our mission at Alliance Wealth is to provide retail clients like yourself with high quality advice that you can rely on to help remove uncertainty in your life, thus positioning you to meet your needs and objectives.

Our Responsibility to You

Your adviser provides financial advice and services on behalf of Alliance Wealth and accordingly we are responsible for the financial advice and services they provide.

Our advisers are required to provide an FSG and an Adviser Profile to you prior to providing any personalised financial advice, products and/or services. The FSG, together with the Adviser Profile, is a disclosure requirement under the Corporations Act 2001(Cth). If you have not received an Adviser Profile, please ask your adviser for a copy or contact us (see page 7 for contact details).

The Adviser Profile contains important information about your adviser. This includes their Authorised Representative number and/or Corporate Authorised Representative number (if applicable), accreditations, qualifications and experience, areas of advice and types of financial services they can provide, details of how they get paid and fees that you may be charged.

Our Commitment to You

Our advisers are committed to providing quality financial advice and a wide choice of products and/or services to suit individual client circumstances.

Your adviser is obliged by law to act in your best interests and provide appropriate advice, when providing financial advice to you. To be in a position to provide effective advice, your adviser will need to determine your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances.

You will be asked to provide accurate information and to keep your adviser updated on any changes to your relevant circumstances to ensure the advice provided and financial products recommended remain relevant to your personal situation. You do have the right not to divulge such information. However, in this case, your adviser will warn you about the possible consequences and how this may impact the quality and reliability of the advice provided. Additionally, your adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they have insufficient information to proceed.

Before providing any financial products and/or services to you, we will need to verify your identity in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act). Your adviser will let you know what documentation you will need to present to allow them to provide you with appropriate advice and to meet the relevant customer identification requirements under the AML/CTF Act.

To ensure that you remain on track to meet your short to long-term needs and objectives, it is vital to periodically review your financial plan. Your adviser will offer a review service appropriate to your circumstances. A fee may be charged for the ongoing advice and management of your financial affairs. Your adviser will provide you with details of any such fees which are applicable to you.

As part of our commitment to you, Alliance Wealth adheres to the Codes of Ethics/Conduct of professional associations such as the Financial Planning Association of Australia, the Financial Services Council and the Australian Association of Financial Advisers.

The principles enshrined in the above mentioned Codes serve as a minimum standard for the professional behavior of our Authorised Representatives, with advisers required, amongst other things, to act in the best interests of clients and to act honestly, efficiently and fairly in the provision of financial services.

Financial Services and/or Products We Can Provide

Alliance Wealth is licensed to provide financial product advice on the following services and/or products including:

- Basic deposit products
- Debentures, stocks and bonds
- Risk insurance (personal and business)
- Investment products
- Managed funds
- Securities
- Margin lending
- Superannuation and self-managed superannuation funds
- Retirement planning including aged care and estate planning

Centrepoint Alliance maintains an Approved Product List (APL). Subject to attaining any required accreditation, your adviser is able to recommend any product on the Centrepoint Alliance APL. There may be instances where your adviser will need to consider products outside of the APL. In these cases, your adviser may apply to Centrepoint Alliance's Research Department to obtain a one-off product approval.

Documents You May Receive

When your adviser provides personal financial advice to you, you may receive one or more of the following documents:

- Letter of Engagement
- Statement of Advice (SoA)
- Statement of Further Advice (SoFA)
- Record of Advice (RoA)
- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)
- Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS)

The SoA will set out the advice that has been tailored to your specific circumstances and provide you with details of all relevant disclosures including details of any remuneration payable.

The SoFA and RoA may be provided in situations where further advice is provided. The SoFA and RoA streamline the documentation process by avoiding unnecessary duplication of information already provided in previous advice documents.

A PDS will be provided if a product recommendation is made and includes detailed information on the financial product including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable).

An FDS will be issued to you in instances where you enter into an Ongoing Fee Arrangement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months. The FDS will contain information about the services you were entitled to receive, the services you actually received and the fees you paid during the period.

You may request in writing a copy of any advice document up to seven (7) years after the advice has been given.

If you have any questions about this FSG or the financial advice, investment and/or risk insurance products or services provided, please contact your adviser.

Client Services

Your adviser may accept your instructions by phone, letter, email or fax. In some instances, your adviser can only accept written instructions from you and will let you know when this occurs.

Your adviser is required to maintain a physical or electronic record of your personal information, which includes details of your relevant personal and financial circumstances.

Your adviser is also required to maintain records of documentation for any financial advice given to you in the course of taking instructions from you, as well as any advice documents your adviser has provided to you.

These records are required to be retained for at least seven (7) years.

Your Privacy

Alliance Wealth and your adviser are subject to certain legislative and regulatory requirements that necessitate collecting, holding and using detailed information that personally identifies you and/or contains information about you.

Alliance Wealth respects your privacy and is committed to protecting and maintaining the security of the personal and financial information you provide us. If you want to access your personal information at any time, please let us know.

For detailed information on how we handle your personal information, please see our Privacy Policy.

This Policy is located at:

Cross-border disclosure

Alliance Wealth may engage third party service providers to assist in the provision of products or services.

Some services may require disclosure of personal information to service providers outside Australia including the Philippines. The purpose of such disclosure is to facilitate the provision of financial services including the preparation of financial advice documents for Alliance Wealth advisers.

Some Alliance Wealth advisers may enter into their own outsourcing arrangements to countries other than the Philippines. If so, the advisers concerned will disclose these arrangements separately to you.

All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that offshore service providers comply with the Privacy Act 1988.

Licensee Remuneration

Alliance Wealth receives a flat fee plus a fixed Professional Indemnity insurance fee per authorised representative for the provision of services required under its Australian Financial Services Licence.

Adviser Remuneration

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. Generally, whenever your adviser provides a recommendation for a financial product or service, your adviser may be remunerated through either:

- An initial fee for service; or
- An ongoing fee for service; or
- Commission payments from product providers where applicable; or
- A combination of any of the above.

All fees or commissions are initially paid to Alliance Wealth before being distributed in full to your adviser or to the relevant Practice.

Referrals

Should you be referred to your adviser by a third party, such as an Accountant or Mortgage Broker, the third party may receive a fee for the referral. This fee does not represent an additional cost to you. You will receive more detailed information concerning any referral fee in your SoA or other relevant advice document.

Other Forms of Remuneration or Benefits

Alliance Wealth and/or its advisers may receive non-monetary benefits from product providers, Alliance Wealth and other similar parties in specific circumstances such as:

- Where the amount is less than $300 and identical or similar benefits are not given on a frequent basis;
- The benefit has a genuine education or training purpose (including attendance to conferences) and is relevant to providing financial product advice; and/or
- The benefit consists of the provision of information technology software or support and is related to the provision of financial product advice in relation to the financial products issued or sold by the benefit provider.

Payments or benefits received must be disclosed in either a Conflicts of Interest Register or an Alternative Remuneration Register. A copy of Alliance Wealth's Register, is available upon request. If you wish to inspect this Register please ask your adviser or contact us.

Related Companies

As noted earlier, Alliance Wealth is a wholly owned subsidiary of Centrepoint Alliance Limited (Centrepoint Alliance), an ASX listed company.

Centrepoint Alliance is also the ultimate holding company of a number of other related bodies corporate.

Following is a listing of those Centrepoint Alliance entities that you are most likely to engage with:

- Associated Advisory Practices Pty Ltd (AAP)
- Centrepoint Wealth Pty Ltd
- Professional Investment Services Pty Ltd
- Investment Diversity Ltd
- Ventura Investment Management Ltd
- Centrepoint Alliance Lending Pty Ltd

AAP has commercial arrangements with a number of insurance product providers, or providers of basic deposit products. These payments are based on either total inforce premium, or total new business premium, or account balances, as the case may be. These payments are not shared with Alliance Wealth or your adviser.

Ventura Investment Management Ltd and Investment Diversity Ltd may be eligible to receive various investment related fees as specified in the relevant PDS if you invest in any of their products.

Your adviser may hold shares in Centrepoint Alliance or other companies related to product providers which may influence, or be seen to influence, the advice that they provide you. Your adviser will disclose all relevant shareholdings to ensure that you are made aware of any potential conflicts.
